TPAS Scotland Annual Conference & AGM 2009 2nd - 4th October 2009 - Apex Hotel, Dundee

TPAS Annual Conference attracts hundreds of delegates each year. Delegates come to catch up on examples of good practice in housing across the country, listen to guest speakers and attend workshops. The conference is a great stage for sponsors to promote their services and products and create contacts throughout the weekend.

Why Sponsor the Conference?

Tenant groups are becoming increasingly more important in the appointment of contracts within social housing. TPAS are one of Scotland's leading organisations providing training and support to tenants involved in housing management.

Main Conference Sponsor

£3000 + VAT

As main conference sponsor you will receive maximum publicity and exposure throughout the conference. This includes a message of thanks in the conference opening session and closing remarks with many opportunities to network with delegates throughout the weekend.

- Company logo appearing on conference literature and badges
- Company logo displayed prominently during event
- Full-page advert in conference programme with company logo
- Leaflets in delegate packs
- Publicity/ message of thanks in opening address to conference
- Lunch & refreshments for up to two representatives for both days
- Other incentives to be discussed with individual sponsor
- Prominent Exhibition space with full access to event

Conference Programme Sponsor
